ASSISTANCE PROGRAM INVITES YOU TO ATTEND

Time Does Not Heal All Wounds: The Role of Grief in Complex Trauma, Attachment & Traumatic Death

Friday, May 4, 2018 | 8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

PRESENTER

Kristen Santel, LISW-S

Kristen is a Licensed Independent Social Worker Supervisor (LISW-S) through the State of Ohio Counselor and Social Worker Board, graduating from The Ohio State University and the University of South Carolina with her BSSW and MSW in 2004, respectively. She is a Level II EMDR trained psychotherapist through EMDRIA with much advanced and master class training in somatic psychotherapy and reparative attachment, and is a Certified Hypnotherapist with American Society of Clinical Hypnosis, a Certified Trauma Specialist with the National Institute for Trauma and Loss in Children, as well as being trained in TF-CBT, CISM and several other therapeutic modalities. Kristen has served as the Clinical Director of Camp Lionheart for 12 years, Central Ohio's week-long, overnight grief camp for children and teens in the Hocking Hills, and continues to grow this program each year. Kristen frequently provides psychoeducation at conferences, schools and symposiums on topics such as traumatic grief, complex trauma, adoption issues and attachment. She lives in downtown Columbus, Ohio with her husband and their portly cat.

OBJECTIVES

- » Create a working theoretical knowledge of grief, complex trauma and attachment in adults, children and teens
- » Develop a working knowledge of the role of attachment in the therapeutic relationship between client and therapist when working with chronically traumatized populations
- » Demonstrate effective interventions to use with children, teens and adults suffering with traumatic grief, complex trauma and attachment challenges
